

Hello Intermediate Art Crew!

When we were last together, we were working on a really cool graphic design wrapper project. They were looking fantastic and are being held safe and sound in the art room for you to pick up next year. Our assignment this week is going to revisit that work and create a new wrapper drawing. To get credit, you have to draw a minimum of one wrapper. It could be a cereal box, a pickle jar, a snickers wrapper.....etc. You can draw several wrappers like you were before or just one wrapper to get your drawing muscles warmed up again. I have attached several pictures and a video for some inspiration. We will change up the lesson weekly so be sure to check the weebly every Monday for the new lesson. In order for you to get credit for the lesson, you must share your work with me. If you do not have a phone to take a picture and email me, you can use the camera on your chromebook. Please email me if you do not know how to do this. I can't wait to see your work!!!! I miss all of your faces dearly.

Hyperrealistic candy wrapper drawing videos. This guy is amazing!!!
