

Calling all MSMS artists!!

Dav Pilkey, the creator of Dog Man and Captain Underpants, has put together an exciting website for us to follow in the upcoming weeks. There are comic books to read, pictures to color, and videos of Pilkey drawing and painting his infamous cartoon characters. My favorite part might be the step by step instructions on how to draw in his comic book style. It is updated weekly, so please continue to check this site out to discover new art and reading activities.

Also, keep sending me that artwork!! I love seeing your creations. Let me know if I can add it to the art gallery for this weebly. Thank you and take care!!!!
